Professional Summary

I'm a South African creative, highly motivated and passionate about art and anything related to it. My BA Fine Arts degree led me towards a career in the Television and Film industry after completing my studies in 2003. My career in the art department spans over the past 20 years.

I have spent the bulk of my career as HOD Properties for or a high-end television drama called Scandal! in South Africa. After relocating to Dubai I am now applying my skills as Art director, Standby Art Director, Set dresser and also running Properties department and props buying for TVC's and television dramas and feature films.

I am energetic and hands-on with excellent managerial skills. I am focused on finding creative solutions and meeting tight deadlines within a given budget. Creatively when I am not working in the art department, I paint and form part of galleries across the globe.
