

Trainer's Biography

MAY ALEM – SENIOR MEDIA TRAINER

May launched her career as a media consultant in 2011 after 16 years as a journalist and news presenter. Since then, she has worked as a coach and media trainer, preparing and training young media talents for TV, coaching CEOs and management board executives for media interviews, public speaking and public performance.

A regular consultant for the Twofour54 training department, May has prepared and provided many high quality courses in Public speaking, Interviewing, Press conferences and TV presenting to various local and international satellite channels and television stations. She has worked on dozens of high profile projects with a range of clients including UAE Ministry of Interior, the UAE Ministry of Presidential Affairs, Abu Dhabi Ports Authority, Abu Dhabi Municipality, Abu Dhabi Department of Finance, ADMAF, Emirates Foundation and Abu Dhabi Film Festival.

May was TV presenter and producer for 9 years at Abu Dhabi Media. She was the face of countless live TV news specials and interviewed many VIPs. Before joining Abu Dhabi Media she was a media advisor at the EU in Brussels.