BIOGRAPHY

Khalid Saeed is a prominent Emirati actor, filmmaker, and presenter known for his powerful screen presence & ability to move fluidly between film, television, and radio. With a background as a commercial pilot and successful entrepreneur, Khalid brings a unique depth and discipline to his craft qualities that have made him stand out in the entertainment industry. He has appeared in major Hollywood productions, earning recognition for his range & professionalism. His career also extends into broadcasting, where he's a familiar face on Dubai TV and a voice many wake up to on a popular prime time morning radio show Beat UAE. Khalid's international work has taken him across continents, collaborating with production teams on both scripted and unscripted projects. His passion for storytelling & connection with diverse audiences reflect his mixed Emirati and Irish heritage. In recognition of his contributions to media and the arts, Khalid has been formally thanked by the UAE Government for his dedication and achievements.
